Chelsea

3/4-INCHES
LONG NOT INCLUDING LOOP

This classic emblem of Unitarian Universalists everywhere is especially rare and unique in this design. The Sterling Silver CHELSEA pendant with its "Blue John" flame rising from the small Chalice base is a bright, small 3/4-inch symbol suspended from the 16-inch Sterling Silver box chain.

As if made to be shown together, the Sterling Silver not only highlights the deep colors of the stone, it brings out the lighter swirling colors in creams, blues and dark browns. Each is different from the others just as our own faith paths differ from each other

Echoes of Faith

7/8" outside diameter, 1/2" wide

Symbols of eight different religious traditions from which we draw many of our teachings and principles...all beautifully shown in raised detail on a Sterling Silver or 14K Gold cylindrical pendant that revolves on the 4 mm braided leather cord necklace. Esther

7/8" x 7/8"

An ancient Jewish symbol and an ancient Hebrew name make this very special Star of David, named for our Jewish-UU friend Esther, a true representation of how our Unitarian Universalist beliefs are supported by those sacred beliefs from nearly 6,000 years ago to the current time. With the evolution of other faiths and beliefs, other symbols were adopted but this one, the Star of David, has been timeless in its meaning and appeal for the Jewish people and their followers.

Horizon

3/4-inches by 4mm thick

The Congregation of Horizon UU Church in Carrollton, Texas was the inspiration for this classic chalice pendant. We have loved and supported Horizon since 1987, only 2 years after it was begun, and have been loved and supported in return by the many wonderful people there. So in their honor, we named this piece Horizon.

Measuring 3/4-inches in diameter and 4mm thick this solid and weighty piece is over seven grams of Sterling Silver or more than nine grams of 14Kt Yellow Gold! The matching chain for either pendant is silky-smooth Sterling Silver or 14Kt Yellow Gold, 16-inches or 18-inches, that slides through the back of the lozenge-shaped chalice.

Legacy

3/4-inch diameter

In honor of our Legacy from the Universalist religion where our roots go deeply into history, the traditional Christian cross is set into our Universalist circle. Why is the cross off-center? Because Christianity is only one of the religions from which we draw our faith and is deliberately not positioned as the centerpiece. The Circle is the important feature, long used to represent infinity from the earliest Egyptian civilizations. Together they are displayed simply in 3/4-inch Sterling Silver or 14K gold. Let this be your homage to your own starting place and that of the early Universalists. *We gratefully acknowledge Adele Madsen of Orange MA for this information.

Maia

size: 1 7/8" X 1"

Maia was one of seven daughters of Atlas and Pleione and was said to be the most beautiful of them all. Zeus made her his mistress after he had seen her beauty. Thus, this pin must be named in her honor.

So beautiful that it would be hard to overlook, Maia will enhance any garment, a lapel, a sweater or a stole. The gracefully entwined Sterling Silver that frames the mysterious, iridescent Roman Glass in the center is antiqued as a counter-point to the bright 18K Yellow Gold Chalice in the middle of it all. What an elegant combination of our Unitarian

Olympia

1" x 5/8"

Named after Olympia Brown, this pendant features an 18K gold flaming chalice on a sterling silver cross, representing the flaming chalice of the human spirit arising from what gave Olympia the strength to fight the good fight and finish the race: God's love for all seen in Jesus' atonement. The first ordained Universalist woman minister, Olympia Brown worked ceaselessly for abolitionism, women's rights, suffrage for both African American men and for all women, and the multitude of other social reforms. We thank Rev Naomi King for both the design and description of this piece.

Zayde

Zayde is the Yiddish word for grandfather and for so many people, their Zayde was a real mensch, someone they hold in very high regard.

With a favorite Zayde in mind, we designed a new piece featuring the Jewish Star of David crafted in antiqued Sterling Silver over precious Roman Glass with an 18 Kt Gold Chalice on top. This pendant is conservatively sized, measuring 3/4-inches in diameter and comes with its own Sterling Silver 18-inch chain.
